- If the artwork is chosen we will email in a swift timeframe to inform the artist and to ask for a small written description.
- We will also ask for any accessibility needs/ requirements and do our best to make it happen and keep an open written communication about what is going on.
- Costs for postage will not be our responsibility, Unfortunately we cannot afford to support these costs. (More information and details will be sent out to those whose art is selected.)
- Only submissions from within the UK can be accepted

Judging-

- The decision that goes into what art is selected is not based on hard and fast rules about the quality, but more the artworks ability to convey the emotion the artwork is seeking to create.
- Artwork that is particularly unique - either in artform or unique concepts will be given special consideration.
- Absolutely No AI. Any artworks found to have used AI will be immediately rejected. Real human creativity is significantly more valuable than a machine reusing other people's works.

- Plagiarism will also not be accepted. Inspiration is different from plagiarism. For example, if I just copy out and submit a piece from someone else that is plagiarism whereas drawing something in the style of Van Gogh or drawing something from Van Gogh in my style is inspiration.
- Artwork should ideally be related to the experience of being adopted, identity, belonging, family, love, grief.
- Only Adoptees can submit art. It must be the art of the adoptee, though any age and any skill level.
- Please do not submit any work that is NSFW (Not Safe For Work) and examples of this include any sexualised content, promotion of substances or alcohol etc. If you are unsure of whether your art falls into this category then maybe consider altering your submission and making a note in the document or file that you submit that describes the change made and I may request the original if I deem it to be SFW (safe for work).
- In the same vein, work that seeks to discriminate against someone else will also be unacceptable.
- You can submit multiple works of art. Though please submit a separate form for each artwork. Multiple works from the same artist may be selected. (This is dependent on how many people total submit artwork) Say I have space for 100 pieces and 80 people submit something, then I have space for multiples from the same person.

- Under 18's artwork will remain anonymous for privacy reasons - We will display the initials of the artist. Over 18's you can decide to either use initials or your name - there is also no requirement for it to be your full name.
- Under 18's will also be required to have a consent form filled out by parents/guardians/carers should their art work be accepted.
